Submission Guidelines

Abstracts should be related to at least one of the topics listed below. Papers under all domains of Nutrition are encouraged. All selected abstracts submitted within the deadline of January 15, 2023, will be published in the Book of Abstracts which will have an ISBN number and can be counted as a publication.

The domains include:

- Public Health Nutrition
- Nutrition and the Brain
- Nutrition Education and Behavioral Science
- Precision Nutrition/Nutrient-Gene Interactions
- Sports Nutrition and Physical Activity
- Tribal Nutrition
- Gender in Health and Disease
- Preventive Health
- Reproductive, Maternal, Newborn, Child and Adolescent Health
- Non-Communicable Diseases

- Health Technology Assessment
- Health System Research
- Technology in Health Care
- Climate, Food Systems, Diet, Nutrition and Health
- Food Science and Nutrition (includes food composition, formulation and processing)
- Diet and Cancer
- Nutritional Microbiome
- Aging and Chronic Disease

Applicants should choose the topic that most closely matches the theme of their abstract.

A. GENERAL GUIDELINES

- Abstracts should be submitted online following registration.
- During abstract submission, the preferred mode of presentation must be selected: Oral/Poster presentation.
- Abstracts should be structured as Introduction, Objectives, Methods, Results, Conclusion and must be within the word count of 250 words.
- Abstracts identified with plagiarism will be rejected forthwith.
- All submitted abstracts will undergo a review process by the scientific committee before being selected for the conference, including the format of presentation.
- The presenting author should have registered for the conference. Only one person will be allowed to present at the conference. Only the presenting author will be given the certificate of presentation.
- Submission of multiple overlapping abstracts is discouraged.
- Abstract already published as an abstract or full manuscript or that will be published prior to February 8th, 2023, cannot be submitted.
- The decision made by the scientific committee with regard to mode of presentation will be final while giving due preference for the mode of presentation stated by the author.
- The list of abstracts accepted for Oral presentation/Poster presentation will be updated to the presenter by 31stJan 2024 and intimation will be sent to your registered mail id
- All abstracts should be submitted via the online submission form ONLY. Other modes of submission will not be entertained.

B. FORMAT FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Please follow a structured format, indicating the following five parts of your abstract.

- Introduction – Provide the background to the problem/issue.
- Objectives – State the purpose of the study (research question) or a hypothesis.
- Methods – Methods used to address the objectives.
- Results – The results obtained in summary form.
- Conclusion – A summary of your findings with recommendations.

- Limit the text to 250 words excluding Introduction, Objectives, Methods, Results and Conclusion.
- Always define abbreviations and acronyms including standard measures. Place special or unusual abbreviations in parentheses after the full word the first time it appears.
- Each abstract must be complete i.e., it must include all information necessary for its comprehension and not refer to another text.

Last Date for Abstract Submissionis January 15th, 2024.

For any query regarding abstract submission, please contact/email Ms.Apeksha Pradhan (0484 6687959/ nutrisymposium24.amrita@gmail.com) with the following details.

Reference Number (provided after payment for registration):

Title (Mr./ Ms./ Mrs./ Dr./ Prof.):

First Name: Middle Name:

Last Name: Contact Number:

Query in brief: